EXHIBIT F

Complainant's Sworn Statement to Weehawken Police

Investigation Report 24-31824A

Weehawken Police Department

Brian Mukamal's sworn statement to Officer McCall, filed September 21, 2024 — nineteen days after the incident. Contains three provably false statements: (1) that he moved to 100 Harbor Blvd "wishing to avoid further conflict" (he chose defendants' new building in a different municipality); (2) that he "was meditating" when defendants started recording (defendants were already on the pool deck; Mukamal approached them); (3) that he "does not know what apartment Mr. Caram and his wife reside in" (he found them at a new address in a new city). Also contains the fabricated quote attributed to Manuel Caram: "I am going to ruin you like we did in the last building" — which does not appear on the audio recording (see Exhibit G).

Supplemental Investigation Report

While I was on my furlough, Mr. Mukamal entered headquarters and provided the desk supervisor with some corrections he had made to the original report. I completed the corrections on this supplemental report.

September 21, 2024

16:01 Hours:

A resident of Weehawken, Mr. Brian Mukamal, entered headquarters to report that he was being harassed by a resident in his building.

Mr. Mukamal started by saying he used to live in North Bergen at 7601 River Road and had issues with his next-door neighbor at that location. At first, he believed he was friends with his neighbor, Mr. Manuel Caram; however, everything changed when he revealed what religion he was. The next day, after advising Mr. Caram about his religion, Mr. Caram called the North Bergen Police Department about a noise complaint instead of contacting him directly. Afterward, Mr. Caram continued to contact the police about the noise complaint and also made different complaints to the property manager. Mr. Mukamal stated he had a court case on July 30 involving the incident at the old address; however, it was postponed because Mr. Caram did not show. The new court date will be October 1.

Mr. Mukamal stated he moved to 100 Harbor Boulevard on August 30 after ending his lease and wishing to avoid further conflict with Mr. Caram and his girlfriend. On September 2, while he was meditating on the patio area, he observed Sara Ray, Mr. Caram's girlfriend recording him. They exchanged words, and he realized that Mr. Caram had moved into the same building as him. Mr. Mukamal added that while he was recording, Mr. Caram stated, "I am going to ruin you like we did in the last building." Mr. Mukamal does not know what apartment Mr. Caram and his wife reside in.

A few days later, Mr. Mukamal received a letter from the leasing office's law firm about the incident. In summary, the letter referred to Mr. Mukamal violating the lease agreement by violating the state law for engaging in disorderly conduct against Mr. Caram. Mr. Mukamal stated he contacted the property manager as well as called and spoke briefly to Juan Jurado, the attorney for Hoboken Point; however, he was advised to file a police report of the incident. Mr. Mukamal stated he also received a letter from Mr. Caram's attorney about the incident as well.

I entered the letters Mr. Mukamal provided me into the property and evidence management system. I advised Mr. Mukamal to try to avoid Mr. Caram and explained to him the process of how to file a complaint for harassment through the court.

BWC.

End of Report.

Re: Supplemental Discovery — Case # 24-31824

State of New Jersey v. Sara Ray & Manuel Caram
Docket Nos. 0911-S-2024-193 / 0911-S-2024-194
Weehawken Municipal Court
Next Hearing: March 18, 2026

Dear Sir or Madam:

Pursuant to the instructions of Phyllis Walsh, Discovery Coordinator for the Weehawken Municipal Prosecutor's Office, I am submitting the enclosed supplemental discovery materials for association with Case # 24-31824, referenced above. Ms. Walsh has confirmed that upon receipt by the Weehawken Police Department, she will obtain these materials and formally submit them as evidence in the above-captioned matters.

This submission contains eight (8) exhibits, each preceded by a cover sheet identifying the document, its source, and its relevance to the pending charges. All documents are authenticated by the accompanying Certification of Sara Ray (see below) pursuant to N.J. Court Rule 1:4-4(b).

The enclosed evidence is directly relevant to the credibility and conduct of the complainant, Brian Mukamal, and to the defense of Sara Ray and Manuel Caram against the pending charges of disorderly conduct and harassment.

Purpose and Legal Basis. This evidence is submitted pursuant to two independent bases under the New Jersey Rules of Evidence:

First, under N.J.R.E. 404(b), the enclosed exhibits are offered to establish the complainant's motive for filing the underlying complaint (retaliation for his own criminal exposure and landlord disciplinary actions, not genuine victimhood); the context of the September 2, 2024 encounter, including the pattern of conduct that explains why the defendants reacted as they did; and the absence of criminal intent on the part of the defendants, whose conduct was reactive to an unsolicited approach by a known harasser who had followed them to a new residence in a different municipality. This evidence is not offered to prove that the complainant acted in conformity with any character trait on the date in question.

Second, under N.J.R.E. 607 and 608, the complainant Brian Mukamal is the sole prosecution witness in this matter. His credibility is squarely at issue. The enclosed evidence — including his false sworn statement to police (Exhibit F), his perjury before this Court on February 26, 2025 (Exhibit G), and the fabricated quote he attributed to Manuel Caram in his police report (contradicted by the defendants' own audio recording) — is offered to impeach the complainant's character for truthfulness, which the Rules of Evidence expressly permit when a witness's credibility is at issue. See N.J.R.E. 607 (any party may attack witness credibility); N.J.R.E. 608 (credibility may be attacked by evidence of character for untruthfulness).

Specifically, the enclosed exhibits demonstrate:

- Exhibit A — Defendants filed a police report on the same day as the incident (September 2, 2024), establishing their defensive posture and preserving contemporaneous details of the complainant's threatening statements;
- Exhibits B & C — The complainant has a documented history of physical aggression (spitting on defendants' groceries), which he admitted in writing and which was independently confirmed by building management through surveillance video review;
- Exhibit D — The complainant has a documented pattern of intimidation, physical aggression toward building staff, and threatening conduct that was assessed by a licensed attorney as potentially constituting terroristic threats;
- Exhibit E — The day before the charged incident, the complainant attempted unauthorized re-entry into a building from which he had been evicted, demonstrating continued fixation;
- Exhibit F — The complainant's sworn statement to police contains multiple provably false assertions, including a fabricated quote attributed to Manuel Caram;
- Exhibit G — The complainant committed perjury by claiming to be "out of the country" on a scheduled court date, contradicted by building access records and gym surveillance video;
- Exhibit H — At mediation, the complainant's counsel proposed a mutual dismissal conditioned on defendants dropping an unrelated criminal charge against the complainant — demonstrating that the complaint was filed for cross-jurisdictional leverage, not as a legitimate report of criminal conduct.

I respectfully request that these materials be associated with Case # 24-31824 and made available to the Municipal Prosecutor's Office in advance of the March 18, 2026 hearing. I further request confirmation of receipt at your earliest convenience.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at the number or email address above with any questions.

Respectfully submitted,

Sara Ray, Pro Se

Filed September 2, 2024 by Sara Ray & Manuel Caram

Incident report filed by Sara Ray and Manuel Caram on September 2, 2024 — the same day as the charged incident — documenting that Brian Mukamal approached them at their new residence and stated: "I FOUND YOU! Incident Report Caller requesting to file a report for harassment.

September 2, 2024 at 1716 hours:

I was dispatched to 100 Harbor Blvd on a report of the caller wanting to file a report for harassment.

On arrival, I spoke to Mr. Manuel Caram in the lobby and then made our way to his apartment for privacy. Mr. Caram stated he just moved into Hoboken Pointe approximately a month ago with his girlfriend, Ms. Sara Ray. He stated at his previous residence, 7601 River Rd, apt. 1101, North Bergen, NJ 07047, he was having issues with another resident by the name of Mr. Brian Mukamal. He stated Mr. Mukamal would make noise at the previous residence and uncomfortably engage with them. Mr. Caram stated he had contacted North Bergen Police in regards to the loud noises Mr. Mukamal would cause at his old residence. Mr. Caram and Ms. Ray did state they had a report to document the incidents with Mr. Mukamal by North Bergen PD which provided report number 24-056550.

Mr. Caram stated they have filed a complaint against Mr. Mukamal with a virtual court date of October 1, 2024. Mr. Caram stated that Mr. Mukamal continues to push back the virtual court date to respond to the complaint.

Mr. Caram stated that today they had a verbal altercation with Mr. Mukamal at their new residence on the 7th floor community grilling area. Before my arrival, Mr. Caram stated he found out from the front desk that Mr. Mukamal also moved into Hoboken Pointe approximately two days ago.

Ms. Ray stated she was sitting in the community grilling area when she observed Mr. Mukamal exiting into the same area as her from the north side of the residence. She stated she was "creeped out" and "frightened" to see Mr. Mukamal thereafter they just moved away from their old residence. Mr. Caram and Ms. Ray stated they believed their issues with Mr. Mukamal were done with after they moved away from North Bergen. Ms. Ray stated they all sat opposite sides from each other and did not engage with Mr. Mukamal. She stated they sat in silence while eating. She stated Mr. Mukamal then proceeded to walk towards their direction a yelled "I FOUND YOU! We get to be neighbors again." Mr. Caram stated Mr. Mukamal called his wife a "Karen" and stated, "I'll be seeing you around." Ms. Ray stated she has video footage from her cellphone of their altercation with Mr. Mukamal and also stated they have been provided surveillance footage from North Bergen PD showing Mr. Mukamal spitting on their food that was observed to be left outside their residence that was possibly a food delivery from what was observed in the surveillance footage.

DUCHESS000298–DUCHESS000303

Court-Ordered Civil Discovery Production (HUD-L-3524-24)

Email chain dated April 29, 2024 from Brian Mukamal to Andrew Dytniak (General Manager, The Duchess), forwarded by Dytniak to building attorney Jennifer Alexander, Esq. (GAPC Law) as containing "threatening language, plans outlined by the resident." Includes Mukamal's written admission: "I should not have spit at his door." Also contains: (1) reference to the Jamal Khashoggi murder in connection with covert recording; (2) a two-option extortion framework (pay moving expenses or face rent strike, lobby occupation, review site campaign); and (3) self-described "Sales Professional" execution commitment.

Hello Andrew,

You are just about as slimy and underhanded as I thought you were ever since I called you out for lying about the valet parking situation to me. It's quite obvious to me that you've held a grudge, and taken action based on it. I've included that email below, as well as the police incident reports where the police arrived because they were called but decided not to take any action because it was not loud. I've also requested the police cam footage that shows the police waiting outside my door, and when asked, responding that they had been outside me door for 3 minutes before knocking and did not think my TV was too loud.

Thank goodness I had the foresight to record all of the conversations that you and I have had in your office since that day. Thank goodness Jersey is a one party consent state. I used the Just Press Record app on my Apple Watch, a great app. It's the same one that Jamal Khashoggi used before he was killed in the Saudi Arabian Embassy. I don't think this is the exact same situation, but what I do know is that you told me something very different in person, that contradicts most of your written communication. You told me in your office that I had not broken any rules and did not have anything to worry about. You thanked me for taking the steps I had taken to mitigate sound. Even after I told you I felt unsafe and harassed, you refused to do anything, among other things. I'm grateful that my instincts about you were so on point and I took steps to protect myself. Good luck explaining your contradictory statements in court ;)

I have an appointment scheduled with a real estate lawyer on Wednesday to determine what next steps I may take, if I feel so inclined. You should be ashamed of your actions.

As for my part in this, I take responsibility for my action. I have integrity, something you seem to lack. I should not have spit at his door. I did not mean to spit on his groceries. At the moment I did it, it was after you sent me your BS "Breach of Lease", and the police had been called on me several times. You, the very person that was supposed to provide a safe environment, were the one targeting me. I'm not proud of my response, but you and this neighbor have conspired against me to break our lease, and I acted out of anger, feeling threatened. It's a human response to all or your back door nonsense.

Who would want to put up with your sub-par, vindictive management? The way I see it, there are two ways this can go.

OPTION 1

Here's your chance to have me leave this building, at minimal cost to you despite all you've cost me in wellbeing. I refuse to be affected financially by your immoral actions as well. You've gone to great lengths to make it uncomfortable to live here, even threatening me with eviction. Here are the terms: You release me from my lease and pay my moving expenses. I have a quote from the mover that moved me in for $1600. This option allows us all to go our separate ways. You've targeted me, and seem to want me out anyway. I don't feel like wasting my time anymore being angry about this situation, or spending my time researching ways to restore fairness. I'm sure those 2 entitled assholes next door would be happy with it. I doubt you'll be happy once the new neighbor moves into my apartment and the two jerks next door start complaining about them, but that's your bed and you can lie in it.

Should you not choose Option 1, Option 2 will be much more costly for you and Post Brothers. I will be here for the next 10 months. Even if you start eviction proceedings, which you and I both know will take quite some time to complete, in the meantime I will stop paying rent. Also, since I feel unsafe in my apartment, you'll find me in the lobby most days, doing a public service. I can read, and work on my computer down there, while I wait for tours to arrive. I'll make sure that all of your tours are well informed on all of the issues with this building. I'll refer them to the google reviews, and probably even print them out for distribution. Think of me as working at The Duchess Information Booth, people should be very well informed before making such a commitment. If I had known that you would move these two muckrakers next to me, I would never have resigned a lease with The Duchess. These potential tenants probably wouldn't even stick around to take the tour once they know the truth.

I'm sure you can also expect the police to continue to be in your building, and all of the tenants wondering why they pay so much to feel so unsafe. Obviously, even though I'm just watching TV, my pigheaded neighbor won't stop calling them (he has my number, and could reach out to me directly, btw). Also, you can expect me to call the police every time I hear that dog bark (I told you about that several times on the recordings, and you did nothing about it). I've tried to be understanding, but look where that's got me. So, I will use all resources available to make sure I am not bothered or harassed in my apartment anymore.

As you're aware, I'm also quite social. I have many friends and acquaintances throughout the building. I will share your audio recordings, the legal letters and emails you sent me, as well as my story with them. You know how people talk in this building. I want them to know exactly what type of person you are. While I know people don't make lease renew decisions based on one factor only, all information contributes to the final decision, and I will apply myself to this task of sharing my personal testimonial. I'm not sure if you know this about me, but I am a Sales Professional, and I'm quite good at communicating ideas and impacts.

We can proceed with either option. Whichever you choose, I'm committed to executing it, and I will give it my all. There's a cost to messing with peoples lives. You should treat others how you would like to be treated, and you have not treated me well.

Let me know your decision by the end of this week. That's when I'll make mine.

Hi Jennifer,

We have an issue with some of our residents and we need to have a notice drafted as soon as possible. The resident of apartment 1103 Brian Mukamal, spit on the groceries left outside the home of unit 1101. This comes after we sent him a lease violation for noise and in leaving a book outside their home "How to Win Friends and Influence People".

Essentially the two residents have been claiming harassment on both sides, initially Brian claimed that his noise was not intrusive, and that he was being harassed by staff and their neighbor over noise complaints.

1101 complained and reported many times that noise was an ongoing issues, from his tv primarily, but after making reports he held a party, left said book behind and today spit on their groceries left outside their door. When reviewing footage we can confirm he did spit on their items. We are waiting for police to arrive to complete a report from the residents.

I have attached the first breach of lease shared with that resident. We would like the next appropriate steps to be taken. From our initial breach of lease sent it would cover (a) loud or obnoxious conduct, (b) disturbing or threatening the rights, comfort, health, safety, or convenience of others (including our agents or employees) in or near the Apartment Community, stalking, following other occupants and/or guests"

To reiterate, as a paying tenant in this building, I will continue to email the property manager of my building as I see fit to address my concerns. You'll continue to answer because you're being shamed publicly for your flaccid responses and shoddy management. It's called accountability. I suggest you do a better job if you want to hide in your office and have limited contact with your tenants.

I will not be contacting your lawyers with anything further after seeing the ridiculous release agreement you had them send me. I would never sign such a rigid document that muzzles me just to move away from this ongoing harassment you've facilitated. The use of NDA's are some real supervillain sh*t. You've just done bad and want to keep it quiet. I want the opposite. Sunlight is the best disinfectant.

While at this point I believe I am dealing with a party that has not represented themselves faithfully (meaning you, to be more than clear), I will continue to document my experience here and share it widely.

You will never have my silence, Andrew.

Have a great weekend!

Last evening the residents he has primarily had issues with contacted us to share

"Not sure what the situation is with the tenant in 1103 but he's been slamming the walls harder than I've ever heard before and I'm hearing rumors that he may "do something" and is very upset. I'm bringing this to your attention although I'm really not sure if this is more a matter for police. I want to feel safe living here but I'm very much alarmed and afraid to even go out in the hallway. "

He also communicated to me yesterday the below. In his words he has been blind copying other residents and it indicating a breach of lease. I had directed him to contact our concierge team for service related issues and stop communications with Beneddicta and I. I can also confirm that our team has not shown footage of him spitting to anyone outside of the police. The residents themselves that filed the report obtained the video and showed others.

It's now been 17 days that my dishwasher is not working and our Property Manager, Andrew Dytyniak, refuses to respond or repair it BCC'ers, welcome to our new subscribers. How ridiculous is this? I've had a broken dishwasher for months now, and our Property Manager just makes empty promises.

Fixing or replacing a dishwasher means more than just saying you'll do it. Nobody reached out to me Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday to schedule it. Another week has passed without any action by you.

You are in Breach of Lease. Fix this appliance.

Oh. One more thing. Your Assistant Manager, Benedicta, has shared the Duchess' hallway security camera video of me, in my hallway, with at least one other tenant in the building, I'm aware of who. He's the gossip king of the building, and they are thick as thieves. He's told many other people in The building that she showed it to him, and they've told me.

Not only is this amoral and unprofessional, but after speaking to a lawyer, we believe it demonstrates a clear violation of privacy and a pattern of harassment. Cease and Desist immediately.

I'm glad that others in the building are being made aware of exactly what type of people they're dealing in you and your team.

Hello Benedicta,

We sent the attached Release Agreement to the tenant. We are waiting for the tenant to sign.

Additionally, on further review of the matter this is a new incident involving a landlord's employee which is not mentioned in the original notice to cease, which was for loud noises and harassing behavior towards another resident. Would you like my office to issue another notice to cease for the matter, as we do not believe that this incident should not go unpunished?

Good afternoon,

While riding the elevator, I encountered Brian, who had just received a letter from the lawyer. Unfortunately, he reacted inappropriately by throwing the letter on the floor and verbally berating me in front of a kid. He expressed that I should feel ashamed for sending him a lease violation notice and criticized me personally.

Internal building communication documenting that on September 1, 2024 — one day before the charged pool deck incident — Brian Mukamal returned to The Duchess at 7601 River Road and attempted to use his deactivated key fob. His Notice to Quit had expired August 31, 2024. He enlisted another resident for elevator access. He was returning to a building from which he had been evicted, and in which Sara Ray and Manuel Caram no longer resided.

Checking in on this for the status.

On Tuesday it was noted Mr. Mukamal returned and was believed to be visiting a resident in 1126. It was noted that he attempted to use his unreturned key fob, (we deactivated after return of apartment keys), and then had another resident in the elevator assist him in access to the floor. There were not other issues noted at that time.

Brian Mukamal's sworn statement to Officer McCall, filed September 21, 2024 — nineteen days after the incident. Contains three provably false statements: (1) that he moved to 100 Harbor Blvd "wishing to avoid further conflict" (he chose defendants' new building in a different municipality); (2) that he "was meditating" when defendants started recording (defendants were already on the pool deck; Mukamal approached them); (3) that he "does not know what apartment Mr. Caram and his wife reside in" (he found them at a new address in a new city). Also contains the fabricated quote attributed to Manuel Caram: "I am going to ruin you like we did in the last building" — which does not appear on the audio recording (see Exhibit G).

Supplemental Investigation Report

While I was on my furlough, Mr. Mukamal entered headquarters and provided the desk supervisor with some corrections he had made to the original report. I completed the corrections on this supplemental report.

September 21, 2024

16:01 Hours:

A resident of Weehawken, Mr. Brian Mukamal, entered headquarters to report that he was being harassed by a resident in his building.

Mr. Mukamal started by saying he used to live in North Bergen at 7601 River Road and had issues with his next-door neighbor at that location. At first, he believed he was friends with his neighbor, Mr. Manuel Caram; however, everything changed when he revealed what religion he was. The next day, after advising Mr. Caram about his religion, Mr. Caram called the North Bergen Police Department about a noise complaint instead of contacting him directly. Afterward, Mr. Caram continued to contact the police about the noise complaint and also made different complaints to the property manager. Mr. Mukamal stated he had a court case on July 30 involving the incident at the old address; however, it was postponed because Mr. Caram did not show. The new court date will be October 1.

Mr. Mukamal stated he moved to 100 Harbor Boulevard on August 30 after ending his lease and wishing to avoid further conflict with Mr. Caram and his girlfriend. On September 2, while he was meditating on the patio area, he observed Sara Ray, Mr. Caram's girlfriend recording him. They exchanged words, and he realized that Mr. Caram had moved into the same building as him. Mr. Mukamal added that while he was recording, Mr. Caram stated, "I am going to ruin you like we did in the last building." Mr. Mukamal does not know what apartment Mr. Caram and his wife reside in.

A few days later, Mr. Mukamal received a letter from the leasing office's law firm about the incident. In summary, the letter referred to Mr. Mukamal violating the lease agreement by violating the state law for engaging in disorderly conduct against Mr. Caram. Mr. Mukamal stated he contacted the property manager as well as called and spoke briefly to Juan Jurado, the attorney for Hoboken Point; however, he was advised to file a police report of the incident. Mr. Mukamal stated he also received a letter from Mr. Caram's attorney about the incident as well.

I entered the letters Mr. Mukamal provided me into the property and evidence management system. I advised Mr. Mukamal to try to avoid Mr. Caram and explained to him the process of how to file a complaint for harassment through the court.

BWC.

End of Report.

Perjury Evidence — Gym Surveillance & Building Access Records

On February 26, 2025, Brian Mukamal (or his attorney on his behalf) represented to this Court that he was "out of the country" and could not appear for a scheduled hearing. Building access records (Keyscan system) show Mukamal swiping into the building at 10:36 AM, 10:43 AM, and 11:35 AM on that date. Gym surveillance video confirms his physical presence in the building's yoga room. This evidence was previously submitted to the Court.

RE: State of New Jersey v. Manuel Caram
Complaint No. 0911 S 2024 000194
Defendant's evidence to be submitted at the Contempt Hearing of Complainant Brian Mukamal

Dear Mr. Reisman:

This office represents the Defendants Sara Ray and Manuel Caram in the above-referenced matters. On February 26, 2025, a hearing was held before the Honorable Lauren Olivieri. On that morning, Complainant Brian Mukamal submitted a written request for an adjournment, stating that he was out of the country and could not attend the hearing.

However, the Defendants discovered that Mr. Mukamal was not out of the country on February 26, 2025, as he claimed to the court in his written request for an adjournment. Mr. Mukamal was instead working out in the gym of the apartment building where the parties reside.

We informed the court that we had evidence proving Mr. Mukamal was not out of the country during the February 26, 2025, hearing in this case. As a result, the court ordered that a contempt hearing be scheduled. The contempt hearing has been scheduled for April 16, 2025, before the Honorable Lauren Olivieri.

We submit the following proof to establish that Mr. Mukamal should be held in contempt for his intentional misrepresentation to the court that he was out of the county during the February 26, 2025, hearing.

Attached as Exhibit A is the subpoena issued to the management company of the parties' apartment building. Attached as Exhibit B is a copy of the gym's entry summary on February 26, 2025. The summary shows that Mr. Mukamal entered the gym at 10:36 a.m., 10:43 a.m., and 11:35 a.m., these entries are highlighted in orange. Moreover, attached to this email is a video showing Mr. Mukamal in the yoga room at 10:58 am on February 26, 2025.

In light of this information, we respectfully request that the frivolous complaints filed by Mr. Mukamal against the Defendants be dismissed in their entirety and that the Defendants be awarded their reasonable attorney fees incurred throughout the pendency of these proceedings.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

GEOFFREY T. MOTT, ESQ.

Mediation Court Sheet — February 7, 2025

Documenting Complainant's Proposed Mutual Dismissal Trade

Attorney court sheet from the February 7, 2025 mediation session documenting that Brian Mukamal's counsel proposed a mutual dismissal: all Weehawken charges against Sara Ray and Manuel Caram would be dropped in exchange for Sara dropping the North Bergen spitting charge (State v. Brian Mukamal, Criminal Complaint No. 0908-S-2024-269). This offer demonstrates that the Weehawken complaint was filed as cross-jurisdictional leverage to neutralize Mukamal's own criminal exposure — not as a genuine complaint by a victim. This is textbook abuse of process.

State v. Sara Ray

Criminal Complaint No. 0911-S-2024-193

State v. Manuel Caram

Criminal Complaint No. 0911-S-2024-194

Our File No. NJ-4782

This is a criminal defense matter. I appeared virtually via Zoom with and on behalf of the Defendants in the respective matters for a mediation session. The witness, Brian Mukamal also appeared with counsel. There was also a court-appointed non-lawyer mediator there to assist in the session. Once we got started the mediator attempted to cut to the chase, and proposed a resolution by which the parties would enter into a mutual no-contact agreement, and the complaints would be dismissed. Both sides were seemingly receptive to the idea, but counsel for Mr. Mukamal requested that the mediator allow the parties to separately and privately confer. So at that time I was placed in a breakout room with Ms. Ray and Mr. Caram, while Mr. Mukamal and his attorney were placed in another breakout room. The mediator said he would speak with Mr. Mukamal first, so we waited for a while for him to come and speak with us. While waiting for the mediator I had time to discuss this case with the clients. They are still extremely upset about the events that led them to this point, and did not seem to be in a state of mind that suggested mediation was really possible. I told them that while nobody had said it, my guess from experience is that any mediation agreement will require dismissal of the criminal complaints against them in Weehawken, as well as a dismissal of the criminal complaint they have against Mr. Mukamal in North Bergen (State v. Brian Mukamal, Criminal Complaint No. 0908-S-2024-269), which relates to Mr. Mukamal spitting on their grocery order (we are not retained in that matter). They were quite opposed to that. Ms. Ray did suggest she was worried that all of this would impact her government security clearance if it leads to a conviction. I told her that we are happy to go in whatever direction she would like, but that if she is that worried about it a mutual dismissal with a no-contact agreement would avoid the possibility of that problem. Once the mediator joined us, he was not especially helpful. I talked over Ms. Ray and Mr. Caram, cut them off, and was generally very rude and dismissive. Sensing that our clients were not likely to listen to anything he had to say due to his demeanor alone, I asked him to just confirm what is on the table and to give us some time to discuss. He confirmed that the proposal is for all complaints to be dismissed and for there to be a mutual no-contact agreement. He gave some options as to how exactly that would look, and how it would interact with dismissals, expungement, and what happens in the event of a violation. I asked him to just give us maybe 5-10 minutes to discuss. Once he left I talked all of these options through with the clients. Ultimately they just did not want to dismiss their complaint against Mr. Mukamal. And I don't really disagree with that position. Mr. Mukamal's complaint against them seems extremely flimsy, whereas our clients have video of Mukamal spitting on their groceries. But even if Mukamal is not convicted, so what. They are still very likely to end up with the same outcome—dismissals of all, and expungement of the record after dismissal—but without the no contact order. Clients seemed fine with that possibility. So when the mediator came back, we let him know that we would not be able to resolve the matter today. He reported that back to the court, and then let us know we would receive a notice regarding the next hearing date.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF
MOTION FOR DISQUALIFICATION OF HON. LAUREN R. OLIVIERI

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Defendant Sara Ray moves for the disqualification of Hon. Lauren R. Olivieri from all proceedings in the above-captioned matters pursuant to R. 1:12-1(g) and R. 1:12-2. These petty disorderly persons charges have been pending for approximately 550 days across 16 court appearances without proceeding to trial. The grounds for disqualification are grounded entirely in documented courtroom conduct: a pattern of disparate treatment, prejudgment, and procedural irregularities across multiple hearings that, taken together, would cause a reasonable, fully informed person to doubt the impartiality of these proceedings.

POINT I
THE LEGAL STANDARD FOR DISQUALIFICATION

R. 1:12-1(g) mandates that a judge shall be disqualified and shall not sit in any matter “when there is any other reason which might preclude a fair and unbiased hearing and judgment, or which might reasonably lead counsel or the parties to believe so.”

The standard is objective. Disqualification is required when a “reasonable, fully informed person would have doubts about the judge’s impartiality.” State v. McCabe, 201 N.J. 34, 44-45 (2010). Proof of actual bias is not required — the appearance of partiality is itself sufficient. Id.; Canon 3(E)(1), Code of Judicial Conduct. “[J]udges are required to maintain, enforce, and observe ‘high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved.’” N.J. Code of Judicial Conduct, Canon 1.

POINT II

DISQUALIFICATION IS REQUIRED

A. A Pattern of Disparate Treatment Establishes an Objectively Reasonable Appearance of Partiality.

The following incidents, drawn from hearings on January 21, 2026 and March 18, 2026, demonstrate a consistent pattern in which Defendant was treated less favorably than opposing counsel under materially identical circumstances. Each incident is independently sufficient under McCabe. Their cumulative effect is compelling.

1. Defendant Was Denied Remote Appearance and Required to Appear in Person While Opposing Counsel and the Complainant Appeared Virtually at the Same Hearing.

On January 20, 2026, Defendant contacted the Weehawken Municipal Court to inquire whether she could appear remotely at the January 21, 2026 hearing. Court staff advised that remote appearance was not available. Defendant appeared in person as required. At that same hearing, however, opposing counsel Carmine Lofaro, Esq. and the complainant Brian Mukamal both appeared virtually. (Certification ¶4.)

The physical burden of in-person appearance — travel, time, cost — was imposed exclusively on the unrepresented defendant. That the same accommodation was simultaneously extended to represented opposing counsel and the complaining party, but denied to Defendant when she requested it the day before, reflects a procedural asymmetry that a reasonable, fully informed person would find difficult to reconcile with the appearance of impartiality.

2. At the Same Hearing, the Court Disparaged Defendant’s Exercise of Her Right to Proceed Pro Se.

At the January 21, 2026 hearing — the same appearance at which remote access was denied to Defendant but granted to the opposing side — Judge Olivieri stated in open court, directed at Defendant, in substance, that Defendant needed to hire an attorney because “that is why they go to school for an extra three years.” (Certification ¶15.)

The right to proceed without counsel is expressly preserved by R. 1:21-1(a). A judge may not communicate to a litigant, on the record, that her choice to exercise that right is inadequate or unwise. The comment, made on the same day Defendant was denied a procedural accommodation freely given to the other side, reinforces the appearance of disparate treatment. Taken together, these two incidents at the January 21, 2026 hearing — one procedural, one expressive — establish a pattern that satisfies the objective standard of McCabe.

3. The Court Communicated Its Intended Ruling to Opposing Counsel Before Defendant Had Been Heard.

At the March 18, 2026 hearing, while all parties were before the court on the record, Judge Olivieri made a statement directed at Mr. Lofaro to the effect that she was going to find that Defendant had caused the delay in the cross-complaint proceedings — as the stated basis for: (1) granting Mr. Lofaro’s motion to dismiss Defendant’s cross-complaint; and (2) denying Defendant’s pending Speedy Trial Motion. The judge appeared to nod toward Mr. Lofaro as she made this statement. Defendant had not yet been heard on either matter. (Certification ¶16.)

Communicating an intended ruling to one party before the other has been heard is the procedural definition of prejudgment. The factual premise underlying the intended ruling is also unsupported by the record: Defendant's cross-complaint was filed on June 5, 2025, eighty-nine days before the applicable one-year limitations period. The gap between that filing and the court's November 25, 2025 probable cause finding reflects the court's own processing timeline. No act or omission by Defendant accounts for that interval. A ruling premised on an unsupported factual finding, communicated to the benefitting party before the opposing party is heard, is disqualifying under McCabe, 201 N.J. at 44-45.

4. The Court Was Prepared to Rule on an Unserved Motion While Applying Asymmetric Scrutiny to Defendant's Account of Non-Service.

At the March 18, 2026 hearing, Judge Olivieri introduced Mr. Lofaro's Motion to Dismiss Defendant's cross-complaint and stated she was prepared to rule on it. Defendant had not been served with the motion and had not seen it before that morning. When Defendant raised the lack of service, Judge Olivieri asked Mr. Lofaro whether he had served the motion on Defendant. Mr. Lofaro acknowledged he had not served it directly; he had submitted it to the court and asked the court to forward it. He had not emailed or otherwise transmitted it to Defendant. (Certification ¶7.)

Rather than accepting this concession at face value, the court summoned multiple staff members and questioned each of them, repeatedly and more than once per staff member, about whether they had forwarded the motion to Defendant. Each staff member confirmed, on each occasion questioned, that they had not. The repeated questioning, in the face of unanimous answers corroborating Defendant's account and Mr. Lofaro's own acknowledgment of non-service, reflects an asymmetric credibility presumption: Defendant's accurate account was subjected to sustained skepticism that opposing counsel's admitted procedural failure was not. (Certification ¶7.)

When Defendant stated, during this process, that she wished to have an opportunity to review the motion, the court directed Defendant to stop talking. Mr. Lofaro, by contrast, spoke to the court at length and without interruption throughout the proceeding. Mr. Lofaro subsequently stated on the record, in substance, that he did not want to face an appeal on this matter later — an acknowledgment of appellate exposure arising from the service failure. The motion itself did not cite the statute applicable to the relief sought. (Certification ¶7.)

5. The Court Failed to Consult the Docket When Defendant Raised a Scheduled Contempt Hearing, Effectively Removing an Adverse Proceeding from the Court's Acknowledged Record.

At the March 18, 2026 hearing, Defendant raised a pending contempt proceeding regarding the complainant's sworn statement of February 26, 2025 — a statement that Defendant contends is contradicted by documentary evidence. Judge Olivieri responded that she had no recollection of any pending contempt hearing. (Certification ¶8.)

The contempt proceeding is documented in the record: it was initiated on April 16, 2025, rescheduled for August 20, 2025 alongside trial, and continued on that date by court instruction. Defendant's prior counsel, Geoffrey T. Mott, Esq., submitted a letter to the court dated August 2025 expressly requesting that all complaints and counter-complaints — including the contempt matter — be included in the August 20, 2025 proceedings. A true copy of that letter is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The court's failure to consult the record before denying the existence of a scheduled proceeding adverse to the opposing party had the practical effect of removing that matter from the court's acknowledged agenda. A reasonable, fully informed person would find this outcome, in the context of the other incidents described herein, consistent with a pattern that undermines confidence in the impartiality of the proceedings. McCabe, 201 N.J. at 44-45.

6. The Court Declined to Rule Pre-Trial on a Timely-Filed Speedy Trial Motion After 550 Days of Proceedings.

Defendant filed a Speedy Trial Motion on January 24, 2026. At the March 18, 2026 hearing, the court stated it would not rule on the motion until trial. (Certification ¶9.) The right to a speedy trial is a pre-trial constitutional guarantee whose only meaningful remedy — dismissal — is necessarily rendered moot if the ruling is deferred until after trial commences. State v. Szima, 70 N.J. 196, 200-201 (1976); N.J. Const. Art. I, ¶ 10. These charges have been pending for approximately 550 days across 16 appearances. A refusal to rule on a constitutional speedy trial motion, filed in advance of a scheduled hearing, in a matter of this age, is legally erroneous. In the context of the foregoing pattern, it is also consistent with the appearance of partiality that R. 1:12-1(g) is designed to prevent.

POINT III UPON DISQUALIFICATION, TRANSFER IS REQUIRED

Weehawken Municipal Court has only one judge. Upon disqualification, R. 1:12-3(a) requires the Assignment Judge of Hudson County to designate another judge to hear the matter. R. 7:8-2(b) authorizes the disqualified judge to refer the matter to the Assignment Judge for such designation, or to transfer the matter to a judge sitting in another municipality within the vicinage. Defendant respectfully requests that this Court make the appropriate referral to the Assignment Judge of the Hudson Vicinage, Hon. David B. Katz, pursuant to R. 1:12-3(a) and N.J.S.A. 2B:12-6, for designation of an acting judge and transfer of venue pursuant to R. 7:8-2(b).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Defendant Sara Ray respectfully requests that the Court disqualify Hon. Lauren R. Olivieri from all further proceedings in Docket Nos.

0911-S-2024-193, 0911-S-2024-194, and 0911-S-2025-000092, and refer these matters to the Assignment Judge of the Hudson Vicinage for designation of an acting judge and transfer of venue pursuant to R. 1:12-3(a) and R. 7:8-2(b).

Respectfully submitted,

CERTIFICATION OF SARA RAY

I, Sara Ray, of full age, hereby certify as follows:

1. I am the defendant in the above-captioned matters and have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein.
2. I have been a pro se defendant in these matters since approximately August 2025, having previously been represented by counsel for over one year at a cost exceeding $40,000, with no resolution.
3. On March 21, 2026, I filed a formal complaint with the Advisory Committee on Judicial Conduct of the New Jersey Supreme Court regarding the conduct of Hon. Lauren R. Olivieri in these proceedings. A true copy of that complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit A. I am aware that the filing of an ethics complaint does not, standing alone, require recusal. See DeNike v. Cupo, 196 N.J. 502 (2008). This motion rests on the courtroom conduct described herein, not on the filing of that complaint.

4. On January 20, 2026, the day before the January 21, 2026 hearing, I contacted the Weehawken Municipal Court and asked whether I could appear remotely at the hearing. Court staff advised that remote appearance was not available. I appeared in person on January 21, 2026. At that hearing, opposing counsel Carmine Lofaro, Esq. and the complainant Brian Mukamal both appeared virtually.

5. At the January 21, 2026 hearing, Judge Olivieri stated in open court, directed at me, in substance, that I needed to hire an attorney because “that is why they go to school for an extra three years.”

6. At the March 18, 2026 hearing, while all parties were present on the record, Judge Olivieri made a statement directed at Mr. Lofaro to the effect that she was going to find that I had caused the delay in the cross-complaint proceedings, as the stated basis for granting Mr. Lofaro’s motion to dismiss my cross-complaint and for denying my pending Speedy Trial Motion. She appeared to nod toward Mr. Lofaro as she made this statement. I had not been heard on either matter.

7. At the March 18, 2026 hearing, Judge Olivieri introduced Mr. Lofaro’s Motion to Dismiss my cross-complaint and stated she was ready to rule on it. I had not been served with the motion and had not seen it before that morning. I raised the lack of service. Mr. Lofaro acknowledged he had submitted the motion to the court and asked the court to forward it to me, but had not served it on me directly. Judge Olivieri then summoned multiple court staff members and questioned each of them, more than once, about whether they had forwarded the motion to me. Each confirmed they had not. When I stated during this process that I would like an opportunity to review the motion, the judge directed me to stop talking. Mr. Lofaro spoke to the court at length without interruption throughout the same proceeding. Mr. Lofaro then stated on the record, in substance, that he did not want to face an appeal on this matter later. The motion did not cite the statute applicable to the relief he was seeking.

8. At the March 18, 2026 hearing, I raised a pending contempt proceeding regarding the complainant's sworn statement of February 26, 2025. Judge Olivieri stated she had no recollection of any pending contempt hearing. That proceeding was initiated on April 16, 2025, rescheduled for August 20, 2025, and continued on that date by court instruction. My prior counsel, Geoffrey T. Mott, Esq., submitted a letter to the court in August 2025 requesting that all complaints and counter-complaints, including the contempt matter, be included in the August 20, 2025 proceedings. A true copy of that letter is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

9. At the March 18, 2026 hearing, Judge Olivieri stated she would not rule on my Speedy Trial Motion, filed January 24, 2026, until trial.

10. I certify that the foregoing statements made by me are true. I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements made by me are willfully false, I am subject to punishment.

Respectfully submitted,

I. INTRODUCTION

I submit this complaint to document seven specific incidents of judicial misconduct by Hon. Lauren R. Olivieri across two hearings — January 21, 2026 and March 18, 2026 — in a petty disorderly persons matter that has been pending for approximately 550 days across 16 court appearances without trial.

The incidents include prejudgment of a pending motion communicated directly to opposing counsel; disparagement of my right to self-representation in open court; silencing me on the record while I attempted to exercise a procedural right; a false denial on the record of a scheduled contempt hearing; observed ex parte communications; hostile questioning of my truthfulness despite unanimous corroboration by court staff; and a legally erroneous refusal to rule pre-trial on a pending Speedy Trial Motion.

Each incident is described with specificity and tied to the applicable Canon of the New Jersey Code of Judicial Conduct.

II. BACKGROUND

A. The Underlying Charges

The charges (Docket Nos. 0911-S-2024-193/194) arise from a September 2, 2024 encounter at a pool deck in Weehawken, NJ. Brian Mukamal — a former neighbor who had harassed me at a prior residence — relocated to the same building I had moved into to escape his conduct. On September 2, he approached me and my fiancé and stated: "I found us and we get to be together again!" I filed a police report the same day (Case No. 24-29264, Weehawken PD). Mr. Mukamal subsequently received a notice to cease from the landlord, which he submitted as the basis for his complaints against me and my fiancé. He claimed to have video evidence of the encounter but has never produced it. The municipal prosecutor confirmed in writing on December 2, 2025 that no video evidence from Mr. Mukamal has ever been received.

I have since relocated a second time — to Jersey City — specifically to distance myself from Mr. Mukamal. I was previously represented by counsel for over one year across approximately ten appearances, at a cost exceeding $40,000, with no resolution. I have been proceeding pro se since approximately August 2025.

B. My Cross-Complaint Against Mr. Mukamal

On June 5, 2025, I filed a cross-complaint against Mr. Mukamal for stalking and harassment (Docket No. 0911-S-2025-000092). Probable cause was found on November 25, 2025. The approximately five-month gap between filing and the probable cause finding reflects the court's own processing timeline — not any delay on my part.

C. Pending Contempt Proceeding

On February 26, 2025, Mr. Mukamal falsely stated under oath that he was out of the country on a specific date. Gym surveillance footage and key fob access records contradict this statement. A contempt hearing was scheduled before this court and subsequently continued until trial.

D. Private Attorney as Prosecutor

Throughout these proceedings, Carmine Lofaro, Esq. — private counsel retained by Mr. Mukamal — has functioned as the prosecutor of the charges against me and my fiancé. Judge Olivieri confirmed on the record at the March 18 hearing that Mr. Lofaro, not the State, is prosecuting this matter.

III. SPECIFIC INCIDENTS OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Incident 1 — January 21, 2026: Judge Disparaged Pro Se Litigant's Right to Self-Representation in Open Court

Canon violated: Canon 3(B)(4) — patience, dignity, and courtesy to all who appear before the court, with a particular duty toward pro se litigants

At the January 21, 2026 hearing, Judge Olivieri directed a comment at me in open court stating, in substance, that I needed to hire an attorney because "that is why they go to school for an extra three years."

Pro se representation is a right recognized under New Jersey law. See N.J. Ct. R. 1:21-1(a). A judge may not demean or discourage a litigant for exercising that right. The comment was condescending, dismissive, and directed at me personally in front of all parties and court personnel. It is inconsistent with the dignity required by Canon 3(B)(4).

Incident 2 — March 18, 2026: Judge Prejudged a Pending Motion and Communicated That Prejudgment to Opposing Counsel

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(5) — decide on the facts and law, free from predisposition; Canon 3(E)(1) — disqualification where impartiality may reasonably be questioned

At the March 18 hearing, while all parties were standing before the court on the record, Judge Olivieri murmured a comment directed toward Mr. Lofaro to the effect that she was "going to say they caused the delay" with respect to the cross-complaint. As she made this comment, she was looking at Mr. Lofaro and appeared to nod in his direction.

The comment served as the judge's stated justification for two rulings she was preparing to make: granting Mr. Lofaro's motion to dismiss my cross-complaint, and denying my pending Speedy Trial Motion — both on the basis that I had caused the delay in these proceedings.

This is prejudgment. The question of who caused the delay in the cross-complaint was a disputed factual and legal issue that had not been briefed or argued by either party at the time the judge announced her intended conclusion. The cross-complaint was filed on June 5, 2025 — well within the applicable limitations period. Any delay between filing and the court's probable cause finding was attributable to the court's own processing timeline, not to any action on my part. I had not been heard on this issue before the judge communicated her intended ruling to opposing counsel.

That the judge communicated her prejudgment through a murmured comment directed at opposing counsel — while on the record and in the midst of the hearing — is itself the concern. It reflects a comfort with the dynamic: the judge and opposing counsel sharing an understanding about the intended outcome, while the pro se defendant standing before the court was effectively excluded from the exchange.

Incident 3 — March 18, 2026: Judge Silenced Pro Se Litigant on the Record While She Was Attempting to Exercise a Procedural Right

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(4) — patience, dignity, and courtesy; Canon 3(E)(1) — impartiality

At the same hearing, Mr. Lofaro sought a ruling on his Motion to Dismiss my cross-complaint, filed on or about March 2, 2026. I had never been served with this motion and had not seen it prior to entering the courtroom.

Before I raised the service defect, the court was poised to rule in Mr. Lofaro's favor on a motion I had never received, never read, and had no opportunity to address. The right to notice and an opportunity to be heard before a dispositive ruling is not a procedural technicality — it is a constitutional guarantee.

When I attempted to speak on the record to request time to read the motion, Judge Olivieri yelled at me to stop talking and warned that I would have to sit down. It was ultimately Mr. Lofaro who argued that I should be given time — not out of fairness, but to avoid creating appellate grounds. The judge relented only after opposing counsel made this argument. A pro se litigant should not have to rely on her adversary to secure the right to read a motion before it is ruled upon.

Incident 4 — March 18, 2026: Judge Made a False Statement on the Record Denying Memory of a Scheduled Contempt Hearing

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(1) — faithful and diligent performance of judicial duties; Canon 3(E)(1) — impartiality

When I raised the pending contempt hearing regarding Mr. Mukamal's false sworn statement of February 26, 2025, Judge Olivieri stated on the record that she had no recollection of any pending contempt hearing. She offered no instruction to staff to retrieve the docket entry, no acknowledgment that her recollection might be incomplete, and no corrective action. When I stated I would follow up, she nodded and moved on.

The contempt hearing is a matter of court record. A judge who cannot recall a scheduled proceeding should direct staff to retrieve the docket entry — not deny its existence on the record. The practical effect was the erasure of a pending contempt proceeding adverse to the opposing party.

Incident 5 — March 18, 2026: Observed Ex Parte Communications

Canon violated: Canon 3(B)(7) — prohibition on ex parte communications concerning pending matters

During the hearing, I observed the former municipal prosecutor — present in the courtroom but holding no formal role — moving between Mr. Lofaro and Judge Olivieri and appearing to brief the judge on the case outside of my participation. I respectfully request that the Committee investigate the identity of this individual and the nature of any communications with the court.

Incident 6 — March 18, 2026: Hostile Repeated Questioning of Pro Se Litigant's Truthfulness Despite Unanimous Corroboration by Court Staff

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(4) — dignity and courtesy; Canon 3(E)(1) — impartiality

When I objected that I had not been served with Mr. Lofaro's motion, Judge Olivieri called multiple court employees into chambers and questioned each — repeatedly — about whether the motion had been delivered to me and whether my address had been provided to Mr. Lofaro. Every court employee confirmed: the motion had not been delivered to me, and my address had not been given to Mr. Lofaro.

The judge's repeated questioning of multiple employees, after each confirmed my account, conveyed a presumption that I was being untruthful — despite the absence of any contrary evidence and despite unanimous corroboration by the court's own staff.

I note that Mr. Lofaro did not have my address because I have been forced to move twice — first from my prior building, then from Hoboken Point — specifically to escape Mr. Mukamal's stalking. Mr. Lofaro's remedy for the absence of my address was proper legal channels — a motion for alternative service, a request through the court — not mailing the motion to the courthouse and asking staff to deliver it. His failure to properly serve me does not excuse the deficiency, and the judge's willingness to overlook that failure while subjecting my truthfulness to repeated challenge reflects an asymmetry in how this court treats the parties before it.

Incident 7 — March 18, 2026: Legally Erroneous Refusal to Rule Pre-Trial on a Pending Speedy Trial Motion

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(1) — faithful and competent performance of judicial duties; Canon 3(B)(8) — prompt disposition of pending matters

On January 24, 2026, I filed a Speedy Trial Motion pursuant to N.J. Const. Art. I, ¶ 10 and State v. Szima, 70 N.J. 196 (1976). At the March 18 hearing, Judge Olivieri stated she would not rule on the motion until trial.

This is an error of law. The right to a speedy trial is a pre-trial constitutional right whose only meaningful remedy — dismissal — must be granted before trial commences or it is rendered meaningless. State v. Szima is unambiguous. A petty disorderly charge — the lowest criminal classification in New Jersey, carrying a maximum $500 fine — has now been pending for 550 days across 16 appearances. The constitutional guarantee exists precisely to prevent this.

IV. PATTERN OF CONDUCT

Date	Incident	Effect
Jan. 21, 2026 (#14)	Judge tells Sara she needs an attorney: "that's why they go to school 3 extra years"	Pro se right disparaged; litigant demeaned in open court
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Judge murmurs to Lofaro she was going to attribute the delay to Sara; nods toward him	Prejudgment of two pending matters communicated to one side
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Court poised to rule on unserved motion; judge yells at Sara to stop talking	Sara silenced during critical procedural moment
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Judge denies memory of scheduled contempt hearing (Mukamal perjury)	Pending contempt proceeding effectively erased from docket
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Former prosecutor observed briefing judge outside Sara's participation	Appearance of ex parte communication on pending matter
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Judge questions court staff repeatedly; all confirm Sara's account	Sara presumed untruthful despite unanimous corroboration
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Judge refuses to rule on Speedy Trial Motion until trial	Constitutional right rendered meaningless; 550 days unresolved

Viewed together, these incidents describe a proceeding in which a pro se litigant is demeaned for representing herself, silenced when she speaks, disbelieved when she is corroborated, excluded from the court's communications with opposing counsel, and denied the constitutional protections that are the floor of every criminal proceeding in this State.

3(B)(8)	Prompt disposition of pending matters	7
3(E)(1)	Disqualification where impartiality may reasonably be questioned	2, 3, 4, 6

VI. RELIEF REQUESTED

I respectfully request that the Advisory Committee:

1. Open a formal investigation into the conduct of Hon. Lauren R. Olivieri as described in this complaint;
2. Obtain and review the audio recordings and transcripts of the January 21, 2026 and March 18, 2026 hearings in Docket Nos. 0911-S-2024-193/194 and 0911-S-2025-000092;

August 20, 2025, Proceedings.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that my office represents Sara Ray and Manuel Caram in the above-referenced matters. This matter is currently scheduled for a contempt hearing on Wednesday, August 20, 2025, followed by trial on the same date.

At the last hearing, my clients advised the Court that they intended to file counter-complaints against the complainant. The Court granted them until June 6, 2025, to file, and those complaints, now assigned violation number 0911 S 2025 000193, were filed on June 5, 2025, in accordance with the Court's directive. The purpose was to allow all matters to be tried together on August 20, 2025. At that hearing, we were specifically advised that the August 20, 2025, appearance would encompass (1) the contempt hearing against the complainant, (2) the complaints against my clients, and (3) my clients' complaints against the complainant.

However, when I contacted the Clerk today, I was advised that my clients' complaints would not be heard on August 20, 2025, as they were not ready. I was further informed that the counter-complaints were currently with the County Prosecutor and have been delayed, though the Clerk could not explain the reason for the delay, despite having previously stated that the complaints would take only 45 days to process.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that the August 20, 2025, appearance proceed with the contempt hearing, followed by a trial on both the complaints and counter-complaints, as previously directed by the Court.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Should you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Very truly yours,

/s/ GEOFFREY T. MOTT, ESQ.

Docket Numbers:

0911-S-2024-193 & 0911-S-2024-194 (State v. Sara Ray & Manuel Caram)
0911-S-2025-000092 (State v. Brian Mukamal — Sara Ray, Complainant)

I. INTRODUCTION

I submit this complaint to document seven specific incidents of judicial misconduct by Hon. Lauren R. Olivieri across two hearings — January 21, 2026 and March 18, 2026 — in a petty disorderly persons matter that has been pending for approximately 550 days across 16 court appearances without trial.

The incidents include prejudgment of a pending motion communicated directly to opposing counsel; disparagement of my right to self-representation in open court; silencing me on the record while I attempted to exercise a procedural right; a false denial on the record of a scheduled contempt hearing; observed ex parte communications; hostile questioning of my truthfulness despite unanimous corroboration by court staff; and a legally erroneous refusal to rule pre-trial on a pending Speedy Trial Motion.

Each incident is described with specificity and tied to the applicable Canon of the New Jersey Code of Judicial Conduct.

II. BACKGROUND

A. The Underlying Charges

The charges (Docket Nos. 0911-S-2024-193/194) arise from a September 2, 2024 encounter at a pool deck in Weehawken, NJ. Brian Mukamal — a former neighbor who had harassed me at a prior residence — relocated to the same building I had moved into to escape his conduct. On September 2, he approached me and my fiancé and stated: "I found us and we get to be together again!" I filed a police report the same day (Case No. 24-29264, Weehawken PD). Mr. Mukamal subsequently received a notice to cease from the landlord, which he submitted as the basis for his complaints against me and my fiancé. He claimed to have video evidence of the encounter but has never produced it. The municipal prosecutor confirmed in writing on December 2, 2025 that no video evidence from Mr. Mukamal has ever been received.

I have since relocated a second time — to Jersey City — specifically to distance myself from Mr. Mukamal. I was previously represented by counsel for over one year across approximately ten appearances, at a cost exceeding $40,000, with no resolution. I have been proceeding pro se since approximately August 2025.

B. My Cross-Complaint Against Mr. Mukamal

On June 5, 2025, I filed a cross-complaint against Mr. Mukamal for stalking and harassment (Docket No. 0911-S-2025-000092). Probable cause was found on November 25, 2025. The approximately five-month gap between filing and the probable cause finding reflects the court's own processing timeline — not any delay on my part.

C. Pending Contempt Proceeding

On February 26, 2025, Mr. Mukamal falsely stated under oath that he was out of the country on a specific date. Gym surveillance footage and key fob access records contradict this statement. A contempt hearing was scheduled before this court and subsequently continued until trial.

D. Private Attorney as Prosecutor

Throughout these proceedings, Carmine Lofaro, Esq. — private counsel retained by Mr. Mukamal — has functioned as the prosecutor of the charges against me and my fiancé. Judge Olivieri confirmed on the record at the March 18 hearing that Mr. Lofaro, not the State, is prosecuting this matter.

III. SPECIFIC INCIDENTS OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

Incident 1 — January 21, 2026: Judge Disparaged Pro Se Litigant's Right to Self-Representation in Open Court

Canon violated: Canon 3(B)(4) — patience, dignity, and courtesy to all who appear before the court, with a particular duty toward pro se litigants

At the January 21, 2026 hearing, Judge Olivieri directed a comment at me in open court stating, in substance, that I needed to hire an attorney because "that is why they go to school for an extra three years."

Pro se representation is a right recognized under New Jersey law. See N.J. Ct. R. 1:21-1(a). A judge may not demean or discourage a litigant for exercising that right. The comment was condescending, dismissive, and directed at me personally in front of all parties and court personnel. It is inconsistent with the dignity required by Canon 3(B)(4).

Incident 2 — March 18, 2026: Judge Prejudged a Pending Motion and Communicated That Prejudgment to Opposing Counsel

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(5) — decide on the facts and law, free from predisposition; Canon 3(E)(1) — disqualification where impartiality may reasonably be questioned

At the March 18 hearing, while all parties were standing before the court on the record, Judge Olivieri murmured a comment directed toward Mr. Lofaro to the effect that she was "going to say they caused the delay" with respect to the cross-complaint. As she made this comment, she was looking at Mr. Lofaro and appeared to nod in his direction.

The comment served as the judge's stated justification for two rulings she was preparing to make: granting Mr. Lofaro's motion to dismiss my cross-complaint, and denying my pending Speedy Trial Motion — both on the basis that I had caused the delay in these proceedings.

This is prejudgment. The question of who caused the delay in the cross-complaint was a disputed factual and legal issue that had not been briefed or argued by either party at the time the judge announced her intended conclusion. The cross-complaint was filed on June 5, 2025 — well within the applicable limitations period. Any delay between filing and the court's probable cause finding was attributable to the court's own processing timeline, not to any action on my part. I had not been heard on this issue before the judge communicated her intended ruling to opposing counsel.

That the judge communicated her prejudgment through a murmured comment directed at opposing counsel — while on the record and in the midst of the hearing — is itself the concern. It reflects a comfort with the dynamic: the judge and opposing counsel sharing an understanding about the intended outcome, while the pro se defendant standing before the court was effectively excluded from the exchange.

Incident 3 — March 18, 2026: Judge Silenced Pro Se Litigant on the Record While She Was Attempting to Exercise a Procedural Right

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(4) — patience, dignity, and courtesy; Canon 3(E)(1) — impartiality

At the same hearing, Mr. Lofaro sought a ruling on his Motion to Dismiss my cross-complaint, filed on or about March 2, 2026. I had never been served with this motion and had not seen it prior to entering the courtroom.

Before I raised the service defect, the court was poised to rule in Mr. Lofaro's favor on a motion I had never received, never read, and had no opportunity to address. The right to notice and an opportunity to be heard before a dispositive ruling is not a procedural technicality — it is a constitutional guarantee.

When I attempted to speak on the record to request time to read the motion, Judge Olivieri yelled at me to stop talking and warned that I would have to sit down. It was ultimately Mr. Lofaro who argued that I should be given time — not out of fairness, but to avoid creating appellate grounds. The judge relented only after opposing counsel made this argument. A pro se litigant should not have to rely on her adversary to secure the right to read a motion before it is ruled upon.

Incident 4 — March 18, 2026: Judge Made a False Statement on the Record Denying Memory of a Scheduled Contempt Hearing

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(1) — faithful and diligent performance of judicial duties; Canon 3(E)(1) — impartiality

When I raised the pending contempt hearing regarding Mr. Mukamal's false sworn statement of February 26, 2025, Judge Olivieri stated on the record that she had no recollection of any pending contempt hearing. She offered no instruction to staff to retrieve the docket entry, no acknowledgment that her recollection might be incomplete, and no corrective action. When I stated I would follow up, she nodded and moved on.

The contempt hearing is a matter of court record. A judge who cannot recall a scheduled proceeding should direct staff to retrieve the docket entry — not deny its existence on the record. The practical effect was the erasure of a pending contempt proceeding adverse to the opposing party.

Incident 5 — March 18, 2026: Observed Ex Parte Communications

Canon violated: Canon 3(B)(7) — prohibition on ex parte communications concerning pending matters

During the hearing, I observed the former municipal prosecutor — present in the courtroom but holding no formal role — moving between Mr. Lofaro and Judge Olivieri and appearing to brief the judge on the case outside of my participation. I respectfully request that the Committee investigate the identity of this individual and the nature of any communications with the court.

Incident 6 — March 18, 2026: Hostile Repeated Questioning of Pro Se Litigant's Truthfulness Despite Unanimous Corroboration by Court Staff

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(4) — dignity and courtesy; Canon 3(E)(1) — impartiality

When I objected that I had not been served with Mr. Lofaro's motion, Judge Olivieri called multiple court employees into chambers and questioned each — repeatedly — about whether the motion had been delivered to me and whether my address had been provided to Mr. Lofaro. Every court employee confirmed: the motion had not been delivered to me, and my address had not been given to Mr. Lofaro.

The judge's repeated questioning of multiple employees, after each confirmed my account, conveyed a presumption that I was being untruthful — despite the absence of any contrary evidence and despite unanimous corroboration by the court's own staff.

I note that Mr. Lofaro did not have my address because I have been forced to move twice — first from my prior building, then from Hoboken Point — specifically to escape Mr. Mukamal's stalking. Mr. Lofaro's remedy for the absence of my address was proper legal channels — a motion for alternative service, a request through the court — not mailing the motion to the courthouse and asking staff to deliver it. His failure to properly serve me does not excuse the deficiency, and the judge's willingness to overlook that failure while subjecting my truthfulness to repeated challenge reflects an asymmetry in how this court treats the parties before it.

Incident 7 — March 18, 2026: Legally Erroneous Refusal to Rule Pre-Trial on a Pending Speedy Trial Motion

Canons violated: Canon 3(B)(1) — faithful and competent performance of judicial duties; Canon 3(B)(8) — prompt disposition of pending matters

On January 24, 2026, I filed a Speedy Trial Motion pursuant to N.J. Const. Art. I, ¶ 10 and State v. Szima, 70 N.J. 196 (1976). At the March 18 hearing, Judge Olivieri stated she would not rule on the motion until trial.

This is an error of law. The right to a speedy trial is a pre-trial constitutional right whose only meaningful remedy — dismissal — must be granted before trial commences or it is rendered meaningless. State v. Szima is unambiguous. A petty disorderly charge — the lowest criminal classification in New Jersey, carrying a maximum $500 fine — has now been pending for 550 days across 16 appearances. The constitutional guarantee exists precisely to prevent this.

IV. PATTERN OF CONDUCT

Date	Incident	Effect
Jan. 21, 2026 (#14)	Judge tells Sara she needs an attorney: "that's why they go to school 3 extra years"	Pro se right disparaged; litigant demeaned in open court
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Judge murmurs to Lofaro she was going to attribute the delay to Sara; nods toward him	Prejudgment of two pending matters communicated to one side
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Court poised to rule on unserved motion; judge yells at Sara to stop talking	Sara silenced during critical procedural moment
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Judge denies memory of scheduled contempt hearing (Mukamal perjury)	Pending contempt proceeding effectively erased from docket
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Former prosecutor observed briefing judge outside Sara's participation	Appearance of ex parte communication on pending matter
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Judge questions court staff repeatedly; all confirm Sara's account	Sara presumed untruthful despite unanimous corroboration
Mar. 18, 2026 (#15)	Judge refuses to rule on Speedy Trial Motion until trial	Constitutional right rendered meaningless; 550 days unresolved

Viewed together, these incidents describe a proceeding in which a pro se litigant is demeaned for representing herself, silenced when she speaks, disbelieved when she is corroborated, excluded from the court's communications with opposing counsel, and denied the constitutional protections that are the floor of every criminal proceeding in this State.

V. CANONS IMPLICATED

Canon	Requirement	Incident(s)
3(B)(1)	Faithful, competent, and diligent performance of judicial duties	4, 7
3(B)(4)	Patience, dignity, and courtesy; duty to pro se litigants	1, 3, 6
3(B)(5)	Decide on facts and law; no predisposition	2
3(B)(7)	No ex parte communications on pending matters	5
3(B)(8)	Prompt disposition of pending matters	7
3(E)(1)	Disqualification where impartiality may reasonably be questioned	2, 3, 4, 6

I respectfully request that the Advisory Committee:

2. Obtain and review the audio recordings and transcripts of the January 21, 2026 and March 18, 2026 hearings in Docket Nos. 0911-S-2024-193/194 and 0911-S-2025-000092;
3. Investigate the identity of the former municipal prosecutor present at the March 18, 2026 hearing and the nature of any communications between that individual, Mr. Lofaro, and Judge Olivieri;
4. Inquire into the status of the scheduled contempt hearing regarding Mr. Mukamal's February 26, 2025 false sworn statement; and
5. Take such further action as the Committee deems appropriate under the New Jersey Rules of Court and Code of Judicial Conduct.

VII. CERTIFICATION

COMPLAINT NO. 0911-S-2025-000092

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN OPPOSITION TO
DEFENDANT’S MOTION TO DISMISS COMPLAINT

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Defendant moves to dismiss Complaint No. 0911-S-2025-000092 on the ground that the one-year statute of limitations has expired. This opposition addresses two threshold deficiencies in defendant’s motion before turning to the merits.

First, the Notice of Motion identifies N.J.S.A. 2C:21-6 — the credit card fraud statute — as the governing limitations provision. N.J.S.A. 2C:21-6 has no application to this matter.

Second, defendant’s Memorandum of Law cites N.J.S.A. 2C:1-6(b)(4) as the applicable subsection. Subsection (b)(4) governs prosecutions involving victims under the age of 18. It does not apply here. The charges in this case are harassment under N.J.S.A. 2C:33-4, a petty disorderly persons offense. The applicable limitations provision is N.J.S.A. 2C:1-6(b)(2), which requires that “[a] prosecution for a disorderly persons offense or petty disorderly persons offense must be commenced within one year after it is committed.” The correct statute is not cited anywhere in defendant’s papers.

Notwithstanding these deficiencies, complainant addresses the substance of the motion and demonstrates below that the complaint was timely commenced.

POINT I

STATEMENT OF RELEVANT FACTS

1. On September 2, 2024, the defendant allegedly committed acts of harassment against the complainant in Weehawken Township. The incident was reported to the Weehawken Police Department at 5:16 p.m. that day (CAD No. 24-29264). (Def. Exh. C.)
2. The one-year limitations period under N.J.S.A. 2C:1-6(b)(2) expired on September 2, 2025.
3. At an earlier court appearance, the Court granted the complainant a deadline of June 6, 2025 to file counter-complaints against Mr. Mukamal. The complaint was filed on June 5, 2025 — eighty-nine days before the deadline. (See Exhibit A, Letter from Geoffrey T. Mott, Esq. to the Court, dated August 14, 2025.)¹
4. The filed complaint was forwarded to the County Prosecutor for probable cause review. Attorney Mott’s August 14, 2025 letter documents that the complaints “were currently with the County Prosecutor and have been delayed, though the Clerk could not explain the reason for the delay, despite having previously stated that the complaints would take only 45 days to process.” (Id. at 1–2.)
5. The Complaint-Summons (Defendant’s Exhibit A) bears a system-generated appearance date of July 29, 2025, at 1:00 PM — more than one month before the September 2, 2025 deadline. (Exhibit B hereto.) This date was generated by the Court’s case management system at or near the time of filing, confirming that the complaint was entered into the Court’s system well before the limitations period expired.

6. On November 25, 2025, the Court found probable cause and formally signed the complaint-summons. (Def. Exh. A.)

7. On December 10, 2025, the complainant signed the certification upon receipt from the Court. (Def. Exh. A.) The complainant did not delay — she signed the certification the first date the Court presented it to her, which could not occur until after the probable cause determination.

¹ Attorney Mott’s letter references violation number 0911-S-2025-000193, which corresponds to the broader set of counter-complaints filed on June 5, 2025 on behalf of both complainants. The complaint at issue in this motion — Complaint No. 0911-S-2025-000092 — arises from the same June 5, 2025 filing and the same underlying incident of September 2, 2024. The difference in sequence numbers reflects the Court’s internal assignment of separate docket numbers to individual charges and complainants within the same filing.

POINT II

THE COMPLAINT WAS TIMELY COMMENCED

A. Standard

Under N.J.S.A. 2C:1-6(b)(2), a prosecution for a petty disorderly persons offense must be commenced within one year after it is committed. Under subsection (d), “[a] prosecution is commenced for a nonindictable offense when a warrant or other process is issued, provided that such warrant or process is executed without unreasonable delay.”

The complainant, as the prosecuting party in this matter, bears the burden of demonstrating timely commencement. See State v. Cagno, 211 N.J. 488, 506–07 (2012); State v. Rosado, No. A-0516-22 (App. Div. 2023) (“[t]he State bears the burden of proving that the offense was committed within the prescribed limitations period”). At minimum, the present record defeats dismissal on statute-of-limitations grounds.

B. The Undisputed Record Shows Timely Filing and Pre-Deadline Processing

The complaint was filed with this Court on June 5, 2025 — eighty-nine days before the September 2, 2025 deadline. It was assigned a docket number, entered into the Court’s electronic case management system, and forwarded to the County Prosecutor for probable cause review. Attorney Mott’s August 14, 2025 letter confirms all of this. (Exhibit A.)

The Complaint-Summons form (CDR-1), submitted as Defendant’s own Exhibit A, bears a system-generated appearance date of July 29, 2025. This strongly indicates that the matter had already been entered into and processed within the Court’s system before the September 2, 2025 deadline. This is affirmative evidence of pre-deadline court processing.

C. The Delay Was Not Attributable to Complainant

Complainant acknowledges that administrative acceptance of a complaint for filing is not identical to a judicial finding of probable cause or formal issuance of a complaint-summons. See Notice to the Bar, “Private Citizen Complaints in the Municipal Courts” (Aug. 2, 2019). That distinction, however, does not resolve the motion in defendant’s favor.

For private citizen complaints charging petty disorderly persons offenses, a complaint-summons “may be issued only by a judge or, if authorized by the judge, a municipal court administrator or deputy court administrator.” R. 7:2-2(a)(1); Notice to the Bar (Aug. 2, 2019). This intermediate judicial step is entirely within the Court’s control, not the complainant’s. Complainant cannot compel the County Prosecutor to act, cannot direct the court schedule, and cannot sign a certification until the Court presents it.

Every step between the June 5, 2025 filing and the November 25, 2025 probable cause determination was controlled by the County Prosecutor and the Court — not the complainant. Attorney Mott’s August 14, 2025 letter specifically documents that the complaints were delayed with the County Prosecutor for reasons the Clerk could not explain. Complainant signed the certification on December 10, 2025 — the first date the Court presented it.

D. Defendant’s Interpretation Produces an Absurd Result

If “issued” under N.J.S.A. 2C:1-6(d) means only the judge’s formal signing, then the effective statute of limitations for any citizen complaint is shortened by however many weeks or months the County Prosecutor and Court take to complete their internal review — a period no citizen can control, predict, or accelerate. That reading would effectively shorten the statutory filing period by an amount determined entirely by internal court and prosecutor delay, not by any act or omission of the complainant.

Defendant has offered no authority for the proposition that court-controlled processing delay may be charged against the complainant. His Memorandum cites State v. Twiggs, 233 N.J. 513 (2018), for the general principle that the statute of limitations is “an absolute bar.” But Twiggs does not address the question presented here: what constitutes “commencement” when a citizen complaint is timely filed but delayed in the court’s own pipeline. Defendant cites no case — because there is none — holding that a citizen complainant who files within time and cooperates with every step is barred because the court’s internal machinery moved slowly.

POINT III

DEFENDANT’S OWN EXHIBIT DEFEATS HIS MOTION

Defendant contends that no operative process existed before November 25, 2025. But Defendant’s own Exhibit A — the Complaint-Summons form — bears a system-generated appearance date of July 29, 2025, at 1:00 PM. (Exhibit B hereto.) That date strongly indicates that the complaint was already in the Court’s case management system before the September 2, 2025 deadline.

At minimum, this creates a factual ambiguity about when the complaint was entered into, activated within, or set for processing in the Court’s system — an ambiguity that defendant's motion does not acknowledge, let alone resolve. Defendant submitted the very document that undermines his claim, and his Memorandum of Law does not address the July 29, 2025 date at all. A motion to dismiss on statute-of-limitations grounds should not be granted where the movant's own exhibit contains evidence inconsistent with his theory.

POINT IV

DEFENDANT'S REMAINING ARGUMENTS ARE IRRELEVANT

Defendant's arguments that the complaint is "fabricated" or "retaliatory," and his references to the North Bergen matter (Def. Exh. B), are irrelevant to the narrow issue presented by this motion: timeliness. The merits of the underlying charges are for trial. See State v. Hogan, 144 N.J. 216, 228 (1996) (credibility determinations and resolution of factual disputes are reserved for the trier of fact).

The North Bergen dismissal was for "LACK OF PROSECUTION" — a non-appearance — not a finding that the allegations were false. (Def. Exh. B.) It has no bearing on the timeliness of the complaint now before this Court.

CONCLUSION

The complaint was filed on June 5, 2025 — eighty-nine days before the statutory deadline. It was entered into the Court's case management system and assigned an appearance date of July 29, 2025, as confirmed by defendant's own Exhibit A. The delay between filing and the judge's November 25, 2025 probable cause determination was caused by the County Prosecutor's office, not the complainant. The complainant signed the certification on December 10, 2025 — the first date the Court presented it.

At minimum, defendant's own submissions show that the complaint was in the court system and being processed before the limitations deadline, which defeats dismissal on the present record.

Defendant's motion, which cites the wrong statute on its face (N.J.S.A. 2C:21-6), the wrong subsection in its memorandum (N.J.S.A. 2C:1-6(b)(4)), and no case law on the dispositive question of what constitutes "commencement" under N.J.S.A. 2C:1-6(d), should be denied in its entirety.

Respectfully submitted,

Sara Ray, Pro Se

Request to Include All Complaints and Counter-Complaints in the August 20, 2025, Proceedings.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that my office represents Sara Ray and Manuel Caram in the above-referenced matters. This matter is currently scheduled for a contempt hearing on Wednesday, August 20, 2025, followed by trial on the same date.

At the last hearing, my clients advised the Court that they intended to file counter-complaints against the complainant. The Court granted them until June 6, 2025, to file, and those complaints, now assigned violation number 0911 S 2025 000193, were filed on June 5, 2025, in accordance with the Court's directive. The purpose was to allow all matters to be tried together on August 20, 2025. At that hearing, we were specifically advised that the August 20, 2025, appearance would encompass (1) the contempt hearing against the complainant, (2) the complaints against my clients, and (3) my clients' complaints against the complainant.

However, when I contacted the Clerk today, I was advised that my clients' complaints would not be heard on August 20, 2025, as they were not ready. I was further informed that the counter-complaints were currently with the County Prosecutor and have been delayed, though the Clerk could not explain the reason for the delay, despite having previously stated that the complaints would take only 45 days to process.

Accordingly, I respectfully request that the August 20, 2025, appearance proceed with the contempt hearing, followed by a trial on both the complaints and counter-complaints, as previously directed by the Court.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Should you have any questions or require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Very truly yours,

/s/ GEOFFREY T. MOTT, ESQ.

Dear Ms. Figaro,

I write to correct the record in response to Mr. Lofaro's email of April 14, 2026.

Mr. Lofaro's representation that he was served with neither the original nor the corrected Motion for Disqualification is incorrect. He was served by email on March 21, 2026 at 2:34 PM at clofaro@newjerseylawyers.law. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a copy of that email in native format (.eml) and as Exhibit B is a PDF rendering of the same, both reflecting the transmission, recipient address, timestamp, and attached motion.

As a courtesy, and to eliminate any claimed ambiguity, I am re-serving the corrected Motion for Disqualification herewith as Exhibit C. That filing (15 pages, filed via JEDS on March 21, 2026) is and remains the operative motion.

Respectfully,

v.

SARA RAY and MANUEL CARAM

Docket Nos. 0911-S-2024-193
0911-S-2024-194
0911-S-2025-000092

DEFENDANT SARA RAY'S PRESERVATION OF OBJECTIONS
AND REQUEST TO INCLUDE SUBMISSION IN THE RECORD

Defendant Sara Ray, appearing pro se, respectfully submits the following preservation of objections in advance of the April 22, 2026 hearing and requests that this submission be marked received and included in the court file and record for any future review, including any appeal or trial de novo in the Law Division.

1. Objection to proceeding on substantive matters before the pending recusal motion is clearly addressed.

Defendant preserves her objection to proceeding on substantive or dispositive matters while her Motion for Disqualification/Recusal remains pending. Defendant respectfully requests that the Court state clearly on the record whether that motion is granted, denied, or reserved, and that any ruling be reduced to a signed written order.

2. Objection to proceeding without a ruling on the pending Speedy Trial Motion.

Defendant's Speedy Trial Motion remains pending. Defendant objects to proceeding further without a ruling on that motion, or without the Court stating clearly on the record whether the motion is denied or expressly reserved to trial. Defendant preserves all speedy-trial and due-process arguments arising from delay, the reasons for delay, assertion of the right, and prejudice.

3. Objection to proceeding on disputed procedural history while the court-maintained case chronology remains withheld.

Defendant requested the court-maintained chronological case history / action log for the relevant dockets. Court administration denied that request on the ground that the information requested "is not part of public record." Defendant has timely sought review of that denial through the Rule 1:38-10(b) vicinage-level review process before the Hudson Vicinage Trial Court Administrator, by written appeal dated April 14, 2026. Defendant objects to proceeding on disputed procedural assumptions or recollection while that records issue remains unresolved.

4. Objection to any attempt to cure defective written motion practice by oral amendment at the hearing.

Defendant objects to any attempt by opposing counsel to materially amend, expand, or substitute the legal basis of pending written motions through oral argument on the hearing date. Defendant preserves her objection that she is entitled to notice of the grounds actually being asserted and objects to any trial-by-ambush approach that exceeds the four corners of the written filings.

5. Objection to any limitation preventing Defendant from being fully heard on the record.

Defendant states that during prior proceedings she has experienced repeated difficulty being permitted to fully state objections on the record. This submission is therefore made in writing to preserve objections in the event Defendant is again prevented from fully stating them orally. Defendant objects to any limitation that impairs her ability to preserve issues for review.

6. Objection to proceeding without the requested hearing audio and complete procedural record being meaningfully available for preparation.

Defendant has requested hearing audio and the court-maintained case chronology relevant to disputed procedural history. Defendant preserves her objection to being required to proceed while those record requests remain incomplete or unresolved.

7. Objection concerning the status and procedural history of the contempt matter previously raised by Defendant.

Defendant preserves her objection to any characterization of the prior contempt-related proceedings that is inconsistent with the court's own records or prior scheduling history. Defendant objects to proceeding on uncertain recollection where the official chronology has been requested but withheld or denied.

8. Objection to any retroactive cure of procedural defects after Defendant's objection.

To the extent any party attempts at or after the hearing to cure a procedural defect only after Defendant has objected, Defendant preserves the objection that a late cure does not erase the fact that the issue was previously raised and not established before substantive participation occurred.

9. Objection to private-prosecutor participation absent confirmation on the record of compliance with Rule 7:8-7(b).

Defendant objects to Carmine LoFaro, Esq. appearing as prosecutor on behalf of the State unless the Court confirms on the record compliance with Rule 7:8-7(b). In cross-complaint matters, a private attorney may appear on behalf of the State only if the Court has first reviewed the private prosecutor's motion to appear and accompanying certification on the approved form, has found a potential conflict for the municipal prosecutor, and has placed that finding on the record. Defendant raises this objection because, when Defendant inquired who the prosecutor was in this matter, Defendant was advised that Mr. LoFaro was the prosecutor.

Defendant respectfully requests that the Court state on the record the basis and authorization for Mr. LoFaro's appearance as prosecutor. Defendant further objects to any attempt to retroactively satisfy Rule 7:8-7(b) only after substantive participation has already occurred.

10. Request that any ruling made on April 22, 2026 be clearly stated and reduced to a signed written order or judgment.

Defendant respectfully requests that any ruling made on April 22, 2026, including any denial, reservation to trial, dismissal, or conviction, be clearly stated on the record and promptly reduced to a signed written order or judgment.

11. Request that this submission be marked received and preserved in the official case file.

Defendant respectfully requests that this filing be included in the official court file and record.

Respectfully submitted,

Re: Appeal of Denial of Access to Court Records

Pursuant to R. 1:38-10(b) and Directive #06-10

State of New Jersey v. Sara Ray & Manuel Caram

Docket Nos. 0911-S-2024-000193 & 0911-S-2024-000194

Weehawken Municipal Court

Dear Ms. Galligan or Designee:

Pursuant to Rule 1:38-10(b) and Judiciary Directive #06-10, I respectfully appeal the denial by Weehawken Municipal Court Administrator Ashley A. Figaro, CMCA, of my request for court records in the above-captioned matters.

I. Background

On March 23, 2026, I submitted a Records Request (CN 10200, JEDS Confirmation EF-4046709) to the Weehawken Municipal Court requesting, in the language of the form:

"All case activity logs and docket entries for docket numbers 0911-S-2024-193 and 0911-S-2024-194 (State of NJ v. Sara Ray and State of NJ v. Manuel Caram), including all filings, motions, certifications, orders, hearing dates, and any other electronic or paper records associated with these complaints from inception to present."

A copy of the completed CN 10200 form is attached as Exhibit B. On the form, I identified myself as a named party in the case.

On March 31, 2026, the court acknowledged receipt and stated it was working on the request. On April 10, 2026, Ms. Figaro confirmed that audio recordings and court date notices were ready for pickup ($40 fee for audio), but did not address the case activity log request.

On April 10, 2026, I followed up specifically to confirm that the CN 10200 request for the full case activity log remained outstanding. On April 13, Ms. Figaro asked me to "clarify docket entries," suggesting that dockets and filings were "the same" and that I might want copies of the complaints.

On April 13, I clarified that I was requesting the MACS system's internal chronological computer printout — the complete Case History or Action Log — for both dockets, not copies of physical documents already in my possession.

On April 14, 2026, Ms. Figaro denied the request with a single sentence: "The information requested is not part of public record." No rule, statute, or specific exception was cited. I immediately requested the legal basis for the denial. No response has been provided.

The full email exchange is attached as Exhibit A.

II. The Denial Is Legally Erroneous

Under R. 1:38-3(a), a "court record" includes "any information maintained by a court in any form in connection with a case or judicial proceeding, including but not limited to pleadings, motions, briefs and their respective attachments, evidentiary exhibits, indices, calendars, and dockets." The MACS chronological case history — the court system's own internal record of every event, filing, and scheduled appearance in a case — falls squarely within this definition.

All court records "shall be accessible to the public" except as provided in R. 1:38-6 (confidential records) and R. 1:38-7 (sealed records). Ms. Figaro has identified no applicable exception under either rule. The MACS case history for a pending municipal court matter is not among the categories of confidential records enumerated in R. 1:38-6.

Moreover, I am a named defendant in both dockets and requested the court-maintained chronological case history for my own matters. On the CN 10200 form, I affirmatively checked "Yes" to the question "Are you a named party or attorney in this case?"

III. Urgency and Relevance to Pending Motions

My next hearing in both matters is April 22, 2026 — eight days from the date of this letter. The MACS chronological case history is directly material to (a) my pending speedy trial motion under R. 3:25-4, which requires the full chronological appearance history over the twenty months these cases have been pending; and (b) my opposition to opposing counsel's Motion to Dismiss for statute of limitations in the related matter (Docket No. 0911-S-2025-000092), where the complete chronological record of every appearance and continuance is essential to establishing the procedural timeline.

IV. Relief Requested

I respectfully request expedited review of the denial, no later than April 21, 2026, and direction to the Weehawken Municipal Court to produce the MACS system chronological case history / action log for Docket Nos. 0911-S-2024-000193 and 0911-S-2024-000194.

In the alternative, if the appeal is denied, I respectfully request a written statement identifying the specific rule or authority relied upon for withholding this record from a named defendant in the case.

Respectfully submitted,

Thank you for getting back to me so quickly.

To clarify, I am not requesting physical copies of the complaints, motions, or orders. I already possess the physical documents.

I am requesting the court system's internal chronological computer printout for dockets 0911-S-2024-193 and 0911-S-2024-194. In the MACS system, this is the complete "Case History" or "Action Log" (as noted in my submitted records request form) that shows the entire timeline of every scheduled event, hearing date, and filing entry from the inception of the case to today.

I simply need the full MACS system timeline printout to verify the chronological docket history. I can pick this printout up at the same time I pick up the audio CD. Please let me know if there is an additional fee for printing this timeline.
